

God and Knowledge (Christianity Explained)

The world is a combination of good and bad, right and wrong, evolution and creation etc. This is called duality (knowledge). There is no WORLD without duality.

We ate fruit (apple) from the knowledge tree. God said that if you eat fruit of knowledge you will definitely die (that is what has already happened to us). But God said you could come to me. And Christ said, "I am the way, the truth and the life. No man comes to God except through me." (John 14:6). Many people do not know the meaning of this statement. They try to find its meaning through the knowledge (by eating the fruit of knowledge). But according to Genesis 2.3, fruit of knowledge gives us death but not the truth. If you come to God you have no more death. It is everlasting (eternal) life. You cannot come to God except by Christ. Who is Christ? In Luke 22:19, 20. ...and he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Likewise, he also took the cup after supper, saying "This cup of wine is my blood.

What is the hidden meaning of the Jesus Christ's statement? His 'blood' and 'wine in the cup' are the same. His body and piece of bread are the same. That is why he said "no man comes to God except by me". The knowledge separate blood and wine cup, the body and piece of bread. The knowledge separates you and your enemy. But you cannot enter heaven until you see that 'you and your enemy' are the same. You have to give up knowledge to 'see' you and your enemy are the same. The knowledge is the path to death but not the path to the heaven.

You remember the God said that "The door of the Kingdom (heaven) is very narrow and you cannot enter to his Kingdom with carrying the sack of belongings (luggage) in your head." Here "the sack of belongings" means the knowledge. You cannot enter the heaven with your knowledge (duality). If so, you cannot enter the heaven as a person because belief of the 'personality' (self-view) is also a part of the knowledge. The truth is that "The God is the Wisdom (it is beyond the knowledge)". The heaven has no any kind of duality. The Christ is the path to the wisdom. It is the middle path away from the knowledge.

The Duality is not a gift of the God. See John 4:9&10; Then woman of the Samaria said to him, "How is it that you, being a Jew, ask a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" (She was talking something about ethnicity-the duality) For Jews have no dealing with Samaritans. Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of the God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water. In later (John 4:14) Bible explain the living water as everlasting life. You cannot have living water with duality.

Once you entered the heaven; you would not have any belief, any duality. If you have no belief and duality, then you would not have any kind of knowledge.

See the John 3:3; Jesus answered and said to him, “Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of the God.”

The John 3:4; Nicodemus said to him, “How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother’s womb and be born?”

John 3:5 Jesus answered, “Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born of the water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of the God.”

Look at the amazing statement of the Jesus; He said that some one cannot enter the kingdom of the God unless he is born of the water and the Spirit. Because, you have been born from the mother’s womb, you cannot see the kingdom of the God. You have to be reborn of the water. What does this mean? You accept the womb, that’s why you were born from the womb; acceptance is the knowledge. It is illusion. You cannot see the kingdom of the God, as long as you believe that you were born from the mother’s womb. This is our knowledge. Someone who enters the kingdom of God will see the knowledge as illusion.

Every matter (everything that we grasp) that exists in the world is the knowledge and not the truth. See the Luke 24:36, 39 Jesus said that: “Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Handle me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see I have.” In this statement Jesus said that, according to the truth, flesh and bones do not exist. You cannot see the flesh and bones and womb in the kingdom of the God.

You may find the kingdom of the God in this life, but not after death. All birth, ageing, decease and death are in your knowledge.
